

Tribute

There have been so many tragic losses of great musicians in the most recent years. Each week it seems another icon from the classical rock era or maker of the epic album has passed. The legacy of poetic lyrics, our only consolation.

As part of Charleston's Poetry festival, Fabulon Gallery will host a show of work inspired by music because it plays such an important role for many visual artists. It's in our soul, it moves us, and it translates into our images.

Artists' Reception on 10/21/17 5-8pm. Free and all are welcome.

10/6/17 through 12/06/17.
